A lawyer, to disconcert Jesus asks him, "What must I do to win eternal life?" Jesus then uses the Jewish Shema: love God with all your heart, soul, strength and mind, and love your neighbour as self. Then we hear the lawyer's real motivation in asking the question: he wants to justify himself, to keep himself right, to keep himself right, to know who is his neighbour. The Good Samaritan parable shows that a neighbour addresses any need of any person.

Who is my neighbour?
