PENTECOST

The Holy Spirit is given to enable the disciples to overcome division. In John this is the division from God, from one another, even estrangement from our own true selves, which we call sin. In the Acts account of Pentecost, the division is ethnic and linguistic, with Pentecost now reversing the disaster caused at the tower of Babel.

Can we let the Spirit do its work in us?

NEW ADMINISTRATOR

Father Gerald Sharkey has been named by Archbishop Tartaglia as the new Administrator of St Andrew's Cathedral. He succeeds Mgr Chris McElroy who is stepping down from active ministry. Fr Sharkey was ordained in 2006. Currently he holds the post of Vice Rector of the Pontifical Scots College in Rome, and previously served as Parish Priest of Our Lady and St Helen's in Condorrat. Please pray for him in this new role. He will take up his new post on the Feast of the First Martyrs of the Roman Church, June 30, 2017.

THE SCOTS COLLEGE MAGAZINE is compiled of various articles contributed by many students, staff and friends of the college. The magazine costs £2.50 and all proceeds are going to Mary's meals. To place an order email scotscollegemag@gmail.com

GENERAL ELECTION:

Visit the website www.wheredotheystand.org.uk to question your candidates on crucial life issues such as abortion and assisted suicide. Just fill in a few basic details and the system does the rest! Note that while abortion and assisted suicide are both matters devolved to the Scottish Parliament their importance is so significant that we ought to challenge UK Parliamentary candidates on them and ascertain their views.
