SYNOD ON THE FAMILY

Set to take place Oct. 4-25, this year's ordinary synod will reflect on the theme "Jesus Christ reveals the mystery and vocation of the family" and will gather 279 cardinals, bishops and representatives from all over the world including Archbishop Tartaglia who has asked for your prayers

Each day of the synod will be divided into morning and afternoon sessions. The gathering will be divided into three parts, with each week dedicated to one of the three sections of the synod's guiding document.

Released in June, the synod's "Instrumentum Laboris" builds on the final report of last October's extraordinary synod, and incorporates suggestions from Church entities like bishops' conferences and even individuals who freely sent their opinions.

The first part, titled "Listening to the challenges of the family," focuses mainly on themes surrounding last year's synod, and will be the topic of the first five days of this year's ordinary synod.

Afterward, discussion will shift to the second part, titled "Discernment of the family vocation," before culminating with the third, "The mission of the family today." Both of the final parts will address the new themes to be discussed this year.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE SYNOD
