Friday – Mass will be at 5pm. There will be no Mass or service at 9.30am. This evening Mass is to welcome the Project Truth team. They are a group of young people organised by SPUC Scotland (“the Society for the Protection of the Unborn Child”) who will spend the next week on the streets of Scotland spreading the pro-Life message. Next Friday is the conclusion of their week and they want to have Mass with us before travelling to Coatbridge for a concluding social evening. Please come along and support them in their amazing work. For more information see <https://spucscotland.org/project-truth/>

National Pilgrimage to Carfin – Sunday 2nd September. Tickets are on sale this weekend for just £5- see Luisa/Rosaleen at the back of the church. When we did the trip to Largs we ran the bus without tickets, based on people just signing up at the back of the church and offering a donation on the day. Almost fifty people signed up, but only twenty turned up on the day, which was disappointing since we could have offered the spare seats to other parishes and allowed more people to attend. We hope that by selling tickets in advance this time we can get a more accurate idea of numbers.

The Role of the Laity in the Church Today – is a one-day conference organised by the Archdiocese of St Andrews and Edinburgh on Saturday 6th October. For more information please take a leaflet from the back of the church.

Father Paul McAlinden – recently celebrated his 25th Anniversary as a priest, and to mark the occasion he has handed in some prayer cards which are available at the back of the church. Please take one away and keep him in your prayers, along with prayers for more vocations from our parish in the future.

Holy Mass for newly Married Couples: Archbishop Tartaglia will celebrate Holy Mass for the newly married couples of the Archdiocese in Saint Andrew's Cathedral on Sunday 7th October at 3pm. All couples of the Archdiocese married during the past few years are invited.

COLLECTIONS 29th July £668.80

NEXT SUNDAY there will a special collection for the work of the Apostleship of the Sea.

200 CLUB monies due this week. Please see Helen at the back of the church.
