200 Club: is due this weekend, so please pay your dues before or after 6pm or 10am Mass, and then we'll draw the winners after Sunday teas.

Corpus Christi: this weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, remembering this wonderful gift that God has given us, the gift of Himself in Holy Communion. Let this feast remind us to make a special effort to be recollected in church, to greet Our Lord in the tabernacle as we enter and salute Him as we leave with a devout genuflection (if we are able to, otherwise with a bow), and to receive Him in Holy Communion with love, with suitable preparation, and with an unstained conscience, and afterwards to spend time in thanksgiving, so that we receive Him “with the purity, humility and devotion with which His most holy Mother received Him, with the spirit and fervour of the saints”. To mark the feast there is Evening Prayer and Benediction on Sunday at 5pm.

Classrooms for Malawi: will be doing an appeal and asking for your support in the second collection next weekend, 8th/9th June. Please be generous in helping them.

First Friday: this Friday is the First Friday, and the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart, so we will be joined by the Primary School for 9.30am Mass. June is the month of the Sacred Heart so we should make a special effort throughout June to reflect on Our Lord’s infinite love for us as expressed by the image of His Heart. Let us keep praying “Sweet Heart of Jesus! We implore, Oh, make us love thee, more and more!”

Saturday Vigil Mass: we welcome Monsignor Paul Murray of St Peter’s in Partick to celebrate the Vigil Mass this weekend. Canon Gargaro will be celebrating some Sunday night Masses in St Peter’s in June and July (starting next Sunday), and so in return Monsignor Murray is celebrating our vigil this weekend.

RCIA: the new sessions of RCIA start shortly – if you are interested in discussing becoming a Catholic now is the time to speak to Canon Gargaro.

Bishop of Dunkeld: please pray for Canon Andrew McKenzie, our neighbour as Administrator of the Cathedral, who has been appointed as the next Bishop of Dunkeld after the tragic death of Father Martin Chambers. Please pray too for the priests and people of Dunkeld as they prepare to welcome their new Bishop.

Parish Telephone: the phone line has an intermittent fault which means that some calls are affected by a high-pitched noise which makes them impossible to hear (this includes messages on the answer machine). Apologies if we can't hear your call or message. We have reported the fault and they claim to have fixed it, but obviously unsuccessfully. It is though difficult to fix intermittent faults, since they may not be present when the engineer looks at things. The best way to contact us is by email (address on front page).

The Men of St Joseph: The Men of St Joseph wish to invite all men over the age of 18 to join them for monthly fellowship meetings, including The Rosary, Lectio Divina and Adoration. "As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another." - Proverbs 27:17. Meetings are held on the 1st Thursday of each month. Our next meeting is 6th June, 7:30-9pm in St Anthony's Parish House, 62 Langlands Road, Govan, G51 2BD, themosj.scotland@gmail.com

Sunday Missals: in autumn we will start using a new translation of the Bible at Mass throughout Scotland, England, and Wales. We will talk more about this as the time approaches, but for just now we can pre-order Sunday Missals for a slight discount. They will cost £20 and we can make them available for £19 from October 2024 – if anyone wants to order one you can do so at the stall. Orders must be placed and be paid for by this weekend. If you have ordered and not yet paid please do so this weekend.

Volunteer team needed: we are looking for 2 people to do the teas and coffees after 10.00am Mass every third Sunday. Speak to Canon Gargaro if you are interested.

Glasgow the Welcoming City: Glasgow City Chambers on Sunday 23rd June 2024 at 3pm.
